DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicants' amendments and arguments, filed on 11/16/2005, with respect to Claims 16-26 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 35U.S.C.102(b) and 103(a) rejections have been overcome by rewritten those objected claims – dependent claims in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-26, 28-45, 47-63, and 65-78 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.
 - The prior art fails to teach an apparatus of Claims 1, 21, 41, 54, and 67 that specifically comprises the following:
 - The instant application is deemed to be directed to a non-obvious improvement over the admitted prior art of the instant application and the invention patented in Pat. No. US 5,428,643, US 5,673,291, US 5,867,537. The improvement comprises -

With regard Claim 1, "forming in logic unit a first derived bit by combining the first and third information bits and a second derived bit by combining the second and third information bits; forming first, second, third and fourth address bit sequences by collecting successive first information bits, second information bits, first derived information bits, and second derived bits respectively; and generating first, second, third, and fourth filtered waveform segments based on first, second, third, and fourth bit sequences;" as recited,

With regard Claims 21 and 54, "wherein the modulation waveform is generated in balanced form on two outputs for each of the real and imaginary parts." as recited,

With regard Claims 41 and 67, "wherein the first and second combiners comprise first and second two-wire resistive combining networks for generating respectively the real and imaginary part of the modulation waveform in balanced form." as recited.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
